

Stated Objective

To measure the stock performance of 150 leading companies from around the world. The index includes companies that lead the global economy today — and are poised to do so in the future.

Key Features

- The index components are selected by editors at Dow Jones, based in part on their editorial judgment.
- The index composition is rebalanced on an as-needed basis.
- The index components are equal-weighted.

The Global DowSM was first published in November 2008. To the extent this document includes information for the index for the period prior to its initial publication date, such information is back-tested (i.e., calculations of how the index might have performed during that time period if the index had existed). And the comparisons, assertions and conclusions regarding the performance of the index during such time period are based on back-testing. Back-tested information is purely hypothetical and is provided in this document solely for informational purposes. Back-tested performance does not represent actual performance, and should not be interpreted as an indication of actual performance. Past performance is not indicative of future results.
